

	STEP	SENIOR COMPANIONS	RSVP
Purpose	The Senior Training and Employment Program provides training and job readiness assistance to help those with limited employment prospects get jobs	Senior Companions help vulnerable seniors by visiting them in their homes	Retired and Senior Volunteer Program connects volunteers with service opportunities in their communities that match their skills and availability.
Income Eligibility	< 125% FPIG for household	Single Household: <$21,000/year More than 1: <$29,000/year	No income guidelines
Age Requirement	55+	55+	55+
Other Requirements	Allegheny County resident Currently unemployed 20 hours/week	Must attend 5-day orientation and training Trainings are held in April and November 15-40 hours/week	Must attend an orientation Must volunteer one hour per year
Payment	Minimum wage	Receive stipend, meal allowance, supplemental insurance	No compensation Transportation reimbursement
Benefits	Participants acquire skills needed for employment Resume preparation and interview skills training	Free monthly training Satisfaction of helping people in need	Affiliation with a 500,000 member strong, national program Supplemental Accident, Liability, Auto and Life Insurance Invitations to ongoing recognition events and educational opportunities Inclusion in a fun and active social network with other likeminded volunteers
Contact	Sandy Coda, Jewish Family & Children's Services 412-422-7200	John Miller, Allegheny County Area Agency on Aging 412-350-4061	Riley Baker, Pittsburgh Cares 412-471-2114

